Yeamans Gillingham.

The first record we have of our ancestor in Pennsylvania is from the Middletown Monthly Meeting Records, where he is mentioned as being a witness to the marriage of William Smith, of Yorkshire, England, to Mary Croasdale, at the house of John Chapman, in Bucks county, "the twentieth day of the ninth month, 1690."

Yeamans is said to have come from the south of England,* supposed some time between 1683 and 1690. He bought one hundred acres of land in Oxford township, and what is now the center of Frankford, Philadelphia, bounded by Frankford Creek, Church street, Frankford road to the Arsenal or River road on the east. The deed from William Penn's commissioner, Thomas Fairman, to Yeamans Gillingham, dated August 31, 1691, is recorded in Book I, 5, page 228, October 7, 1699. In 1712 he purchased another lot of ground in the same locality from John Worrell (Deed Book I, 3, page 527, Philadelphia).

Yeamans Gillingham is mentioned on the tax list for Oxford township as having paid six shillings tax in 1693. He was one of the overseers of Abington Meeting, 8th mo. 31, 1720.† He died in May or June, 1722, his will being signed May 9, 1722, and probated in Philadelphia July 21, 1722 (Book D, No. 252, page 324).

WILL OF YEAMANS GILLINGHAM.

In the name of God, Amen. The ninth day of May, Anno Domini One Thousand Seven Hundred and Twenty-two, I, YEAMANS GILLINGHAM, of Oxford township, in the county of Philadelphia, in the province of Pennsylvania, being very, very sick and weak in body, but of perfect mind and memory,—thanks be given unto God there-

*He came, doubtless, from Kent or Dorset. If from the latter county, he may have been the son of one James Gillingham, who seems to have had some connection with the Yeamans and Taylor families, of Dorset and Kent, and whose will was proved 1676. (Thomas Allen Glenn.)

for,—calling unto mind the mortality of my body and knowing that it is appointed for all men once to die, do make and ordain this my last will and testament. That is to say, principally and first of all, I give and commend my soul into the hands of God that gave it, and for my body I recommend it to the earth to be buried in a Christian-like and decent manner at the discretion of my executors. And as touching such worldly estate wherewith it hath pleased God to bless me in this life, I give, devise and dispose of the same in the following manner and form:

Imprimis, I will that all my honest and just debts be known and to be paid as soon as may be after my decease out of my estate, and in order thereto I will that my estate be sold as soon as may be after my decease and all my funeral charges to be defrayed as soon as may be after my decease.

Item, I give and bequeath to MARY, my dearly beloved wife, all my estate, both personal and real, to be disposed of as she pleaseth and by her freely to be possessed, and enjoyed by her, her heirs and assigns forever, excepting, if the estate will admit, after debts defrayed, fifty pounds to each of my dearly beloved sons, JAMES and JOHN, and I do will the said moneys to be put out with good security till they do come to age.

I do likewise constitute, make and ordain my said dear and loving wife my executrix of this my last will and testament, and also I do make, ordain and constitute my two sons-in-law, Henry Paul and James Willson, executors with my said wife jointly of this my last will and testament.

Lastly, I do hereby utterly disallow, revoke and disannul all and every other former testaments, wills, legatees and executors by me named any other time before this time named, willed, bequeathed. Ratifying and confirming this to be my last will and testament and none other.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and seal the day and year first above written.

Yeamans Gillingham.

Sealed, signed, published, pronounced and declared by the said Yeamans Gillingham to be his last will and testament in the presence of we, the subscribers,

PAUL WILMERTON,
JAMES PARSONS,
NATHANIEL HOLTON, JR.

Yeamans Gillingham's wife is said by family tradition to have been Mary Taylor, and to have come from England about the same time as her husband. In the records of Abington Monthly Meeting her maiden name is not given. The dates of birth of their seven children are given, the first as having been born 5th mo. 8, 1694, and it is supposed they were all born in this country, no mention having been made of their being of foreign birth, as was sometimes done. No record has been found of Mary's death or place of interment. Her will, signed twentieth day of October, 1727, was probated November 11, 1727 (Book E, No. 67, page 63, Philadelphia Register of Wills).

MARY GILLINGHAM'S WILL.

In the name of God, Amen. The twentieth of October, in the year of our Lord Anno Domini One Thousand Seven Hundred and Twenty-seven, I, MARY GILLINGHAM, of Oxford, in the county of Philadelphia, in ye province of Pensilvania, widdow, being sick and weak, but of perfect mind and memory, calling to mind the uncertainty of this uncertain and transitory life, do make and declare this my last will and testament in manner and form following: First, I recommend my soul to God that gave it; next, I commit my body to ye Earth to be decently buried at ye discretion of my executors, hereafter named, and for ye selling of my temporal estate I do order, give and dispose of ye same in manner and form following, viz—

Imprimis, I give and bequeath unto my two sons, James and John, each of them twenty shillings when they are of age. I give and bequeath unto my daughter REBECKAH, ye wife of WILLIAM WRIGHT, ten pounds, with the new bed and bolster, and one cow named Rose and four of the best ewes.

I give to my daughter Mary ye largeest brass kettle and warming pan and one cow named Brisk.

Item, I give unto Joseph Paul, son of Henry Paul, five pounds.

Item, I give unto Hannah Willson, daughter of James Willson, five pounds, ye said money to be paid by my executors to their fathers and they to put it out to interest till they come of age.

Item, I will that all the remainder of the household goods and also the remainder of the money be equally divided among my five daughters, Ann, Mary, Sarah, Elizabeth and Susannah, and as soon as conveniently be divided after my decease. My daughter Susannah, her part and dividend of money I order to put out to interest till she be of the age of eighteen years. But, in case any a one or more of the five daughters above mentioned should die without issue, my will is that the same shall be equally divided among the residue.

Item, I give to Ann, Mary, Sarah, Elizabeth and Susannah, their heirs and assigns forever, to be equally divided share and share alike, a small piece of meadow land, about two acres be it more or less, fronting Frankford Creek, as appears by deed; also, another piece y't lies in the neck by Jonathan Dickinson's land, about ye same quantity as appears by deed to Yeamans Gillingham. And, also, I will to have two acres reserved for ye use of my two sons, James and John, to be equally divided between them, and ye said two acres afore reserved of this plantation shall be on that side lying and adjoining on the mill race and fronting Tacony road and ye King's road, and, if in case the said James and John, my sons, at the age of twenty-one years will not take the said two acres in part of their portion allowed and given them by their Father's last will and testament, then the said two acres may be sold.

John Shallcross and John Knowles, both of Oxford, county and province aforesaid, yoemans, I do constitute and make and ordain my executors of this my last will and testament, hereby revoking, disannulling and making void all former will bequests by me made and declaring this only to be my last will and testament.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and seal the day and year first above written.

her
Mary V Gillingham.

Signed, sealed and delivered in the presence of us, James Parsons, George Marrett, William Grimitt.

Probated November 11, 1727.

Letters Test. granted November 20, 1727.

In the will of Mary Brodwell (or Bodwell), signed January 8, 1727, proved January 29, 1729 (Administration Book C, page 150), mention is made of her "grandson-in-law's children, Joseph, Mary, Margaret and John Paul" (children of No. 1), to whom she bequeaths "nineteen pounds lawful money of America"; also "James (No. 5) and John (No. 6) Gillingham, sons of Yeamans Gillingham, late of Frankford, deceased, the sum of three pounds lawful money of America apiece."

"Granddaughter Sarah Spicer (No. 3), wife of Abraham Spicer, of Philadelphia, currier; granddaughters Elizabeth (No. 4) and Rebecca (No. 7a) Gillingham, and granddaughter Ann Paul (No. 1), wife of Henry Paul; granddaughter Mary Willson (No. 2), wife of James Willson; Elizabeth Gillingham and Rebecca Gillingham, five pounds apiece." Great-grandchildren, "James Willson's two children, Mary and Elizabeth (children of No. 2), and John Spicer, son of Abraham Spicer" (No. 3). She willed to "Henry Paul and Ann, his wife, all my shop goods," etc. Letters of administration were granted to Henry Paul February 6, 1729.

It is believed this Mary Brodwell, whose will is mentioned above, was the mother of Mary (Taylor) Gillingham, as she mentions her daughter Sarah Taylor and grandson Isaac Taylor, son of Isaac Taylor.

Children of YEAMANS GILLINGHAM and MARY TAYLOR.

(Births from Abington Meeting Records.)

*From Pottsville "Evening Chronicle," of January 19, 1876:

"We regret to announce the death of Miss Anna Gillingham, which occurred at her late residence on Mahantonga street last evening (Tuesday). Miss Gillingham belonged to the Society of Friends or Quakers, and was well known in this community, and was loved by all for her nobleness of heart and many kind actions. She was pretty far advanced in years, and died from the effects of paralysis, from which she had been suffering for the past few days. The funeral will take place on Friday.'

The following is an abstract record of another branch of a Gillingham family given me, but which seems to be extinct now, with but one exception, and, as far as known, there is no connection with the Yeamans Gillingham branch of the family treated herein.

George Gillingham, born in England, came to America about 1793 or 1803 (each date given me) with two sons and one daughter. He was said to have been a very fine violinist. Settled in Baltimore. Children:

1 George Gillingham, Jr., b. in London, Eng., 7-23-1791.

2 Edwin Gillingham, b. in England.

3 Harriett Gillingham, b. in England, mar. ——— Lindo; no other record.

George Gillingham the first afterward married Anne Hazel, of Annapolis, Md. Moved to Philadelphia, where he died about 1825 or 1830. Both dates given me. Children:

4 Emma Gillingham, b. about 1814.

5 Julia A. Gillingham, was living in Jamestown, R. I., in 1894.

George Gillingham, Jr. (1) married, November 22, 1822, Sarah Haslett. Lived in Baltimore, where he died January 20, 1857. Children:

George H. Gillingham, deceased.

Charles P. Gillingham, b. 1-7-1826, living in Baltimore in 1894, no issue. Furnished some of this record.

Mary Louisa Gillingham, b. 12-28-1827, in Baltimore, mar., 8-24-1852, John Linderman, and had Isabella, George G. and Mary Ella.

Edward N. Gillingham, deceased.

Virginia Gillingham, deceased.

Emily Gillingham, deceased.

William D. Gillingham, deceased.

Edwin Gillingham (2), date of birth unknown, married, ———, Eliza Clemens, in Philadelphia. Children:

Horace Gillingham, died without issue.

Charles T. Gillingham, died without issue.

Emma Gillingham (4), married, ———, ——— Bostwick. She was a great singer, even until she was seventy-seven years of age. When she was sixty she received a salary of $1000 a year in a Chicago church choir. About 1865 she sang in Dr. Hodges's choir, Trinity Church, New York, and afterward soprano soloist in the Cathedral Church of Ascension, New York. Was living in Morristown, N. J. Furnished some of this record.
